LOCAL NOTES.

Work has been temporarily suspended on the Galena chief, Jack Fleming's gold mine, at Dos Cabezas.

Charley Baldwin, of Quijota, will probably go into partnership with Bob Kern, at Phenix.

The store of Summerfield Brothers is being crowded daily since the great closing out sale begun.

Go and price some of the goods at Summerfield Brothers, you will surely buy if you do.

A stage and mail were lost during the storm in the Agua Fria, on the Black Canyon road.

The Gila, at Florence, cannot be crossed, until the approaches to the bridge are finished.

W. L. Bailey died, at Florence, on the 17th. Deceased was a member of the A. O. U. W., and his widow will receive $2,000 from that order.

Only a buckboard is now being run from Tucson to Quijota, three times a week. The route to Gunsight has been discontinued.

The ten stamps of the Southern Bell mill, in the Santa Catalinas, are dropping steadily. The mill employs about twenty men.

During the late storm, the Salt River, at Phenix, reached a stage 18 inches above the highest point of 1884 and within 6 inches of the flood of 1872.

Dr. Kellner, of Phenix, is arranging to place a steam saw mill on the Salt River, a short distance above Tempe. Logs will be floated from the Pinal mountains.

Phenix is beginning to look to the Calabasas railroad project, for connection with the outside world, the Maricopa scheme having proved a fizzle.

A. Cohen, of the New York store, is yet at the old stand, and his customers will find both him and his genial wife as eager to do justice to their numerous patrons as ever before.

Work on the insane asylum, at Phenix, was progressing rapidly, until interrupted by the storm. About 75 men are employed, besides teams, and 400,000 bricks have been burned.

Ex-Secretary Van Arman is president of the California Immigration and Land company, which is advertising the resources of the golden state, throughout the east.

Frank Leslie came in from the frontier last night. He brings no news of importance. The report published of the mutiny of Crawford's scouts is entirely without foundation.

A. D. Lemon, of Phenix, has addressed a letter on the Indian question to the Hon. Wm. Springer, of Washington, urging the granting of government support to the enlistment of 300 volunteers, in Arizona and New Mexico.

The Paul-Shaw case has been adjourned to the regular session of the district court at Tucson, as there was some doubt in the minds of the lawyers, as to the legality of the special session, called to hear the case.

Henry Barron, the barber, who was under indictment by the Pima County Grand jury, in connection with the Paul-Shaw case, was making preparations to leave Tucson for San Francisco, on Friday, when he was re-arrested and made to furnish new bonds.

The Tombstone merchants with a few exceptions are developing into first-class advertisers, this is as it should be, it shows to the outside world that our city is in a thriving and prosperous condition. In this issue of the EPITAPH appear three large and attractive advertisements from the leading merchants of our city. They are all worthy gentlemen and deserving of the splendid trade which they receive from the Tombstone public.

The Stock Growers Meeting.

A meeting of the three Cochise county stock associations was held, at Benson, on Saturday last. The chief object of the meeting was to take steps to prevent the stealing of cattle.

A permanent organization was established, called the General Stock Growers association of Arizona, to meet at Benson, on the first Mondays of April and October.

President, T. F. White; Vice President, Hugh Percy; Secretary, Joseph Paschely; Treasurer, Thomas Dunbar. Assessments, not to exceed two cents per head on cattle. The South Western Stockman to be the official paper of the organization.

Marshall, the great steel manufacturer, of Sheffield, England, is about to remove his entire works, that employ three thousand men, to this country. This looks as if outsiders were taking a rosy view of our business prospects.

"Lucky" Baldwin, the California millionaire, has commenced a libel suit, for $50,000, against Horace Bell, editor of the Porcupine, a spicy little Los Angeles paper. The trouble arises from the recent seduction suit, in which Baldwin figured as defendant.

Representative Payson, of Illinois, is about to introduce a bill, making it illegal for foreigners to acquire a title to land in the territories. The country is becoming alarmed at the immense purchases that have been made by foreign cattle syndicates.

Beef tea is a popular drink in Tucson. Persons who consume this beverage may be supposed to support home industry, by using a local product, Cochise county being famous for its cattle. A few captious critics aver that some of the whisky sold in Tombstone is a local product also.

The first Phenix mail for several days was received in Tombstone on Sunday evening. The Gila is unforgivable and an immense amount of mail and a number of passengers had accumulated at Maricopa. On Friday evening, the stage company launched a skiff and began to make through connections.

The case of the Copper Queen vs. Copper Prince, which was to have been tried in the county court yesterday, has been postponed until Monday next, to allow of the attendance of an important witness from New York. Mr. Murphy, the court reporter of first judicial district, who came up from Tucson on Sunday to report the case, returned this morning.

Mr. Haskins, the new rector of Saint Paul's, has made a very favorable impression by his first conduct of the services, on Sunday last. The high praise bestowed upon him by Bishop Dunlap in regard to eloquence, force and logic in the pulpit are more than merited. The congregation one and all were liberal in acknowledging the reverend gentleman to be possessed of far more than ordinary ability.

Thompson, the man who was shot by Justice Smith at Fairbank, on Saturday night, as reported in the EPITAPH on Sunday, was brought to the city and placed in the county hospital. His wounds are not thought to be so dangerous as at first reported. C. O. Wilson, proprietor of the saloon in which the fracas occurred, writes to the EPITAPH that he was not drunk, that he only wrested a chair away from a man and that he had the money to pay his fine.

Superintendent Muir, of the Southern Pacific, has induced his company to make special rates, from Los Angeles to Maricopa, on parties of five or more persons, visiting the Salt River Valley for the purpose of making investments in property. Mr. Muir is always alive to anything that promises to enhance the prosperity of Arizona. The arrangement referred to will cause many of the great army of California tourists to come and take a look at the so-called "desert."

Ex-Agent J. P. Clum is anxious to have his portrait taken, along with Nadi-ough. The sheriff's permission has been obtained, but it was not so easy to gain the consent of the dusky maiden. She finally agreed to the transaction, provided Clum would wear his hat, as she said she would not like her family to see her picture, beside a man who has apparently been scalped. Meantime, Mac, the curiosity dealer at the Tucson depot, is offering for sale to credulous tourists the "only run and original" portraits of the captive squaw and John P.

A private letter received last evening from C. W. Clum, says he is delighted with El Paso, and, in the language of our native tongue, has "struck it rich." He is engaged in the office of Mr. Hague, who is crowded with large cases that have plenty of money in them. We are certain that Mr. Clum will make himself not only useful, but indispensable to Mr. Hague, and the doors to professional success are thus thrown wide open, to this deserving young attorney. Casey has a myriad of friends in Tombstone and elsewhere who sincerely congratulate him upon his good fortune and bright prospects.

Hotel Arrivals.

The following late arrivals are registered at the Occidental:

Of the nineteen arrests made in Tombstone, during the present month, eighteen were tramps and one a soldier from Huachuca. This speaks well for the atmosphere of our mining metropolis.

A woman, of Valladolid, Spain, recently gave birth to seven children, in two days. The name of the town should be changed to Varioloid, if they are often subject to such a breaking out down there.

The new Normal school, at Tempe, will open on the first Monday in next month. This is a good opportunity for young people, who intend to adopt the profession of teacher, to obtain a thorough training at a nominal cost.

The Mammoth Mining company's 30 stamp mill, on the San Pedro, is running steadily, pounding out gold bullion. While in Tucson an EPITAPH reporter learned that the company intends shortly to erect steam hoisting works, additional stamps and to lay a narrow gauge railroad, from the mill to the mine. Mr. Horatio Collins, owns the Hackney, a valuable group of mines, in that camp. These were worked long before the Mammoth was located and promise to prove equally rich properties, with development.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the public library held on Tuesday, it was decided to close the free reading rooms evenings for the present. The library will open on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons from 2 to 4 o'clock, to holders of tickets to exchange books and renew subscriptions.

Job Seamans & Son announce to their many patrons that they have in stock the most elegant and artistic display of diamonds and Christmas presents, etc., etc., that has ever been offered to the citizens of Tombstone. They desire further to inform the public that their reputation for upright, square and legitimate dealing is so well established that they are not driven to resort to deception—hanging out the "red flag," or advertising "snide prize packages," but on the contrary, they give a "fee simple" to every article sold by them. A No. 1 goods, genuine articles and small profits for cash is their motto.
